

Hello & Welcome to our Springtime Newsletter

The first quarter of this year we have been focusing on investing in the development of the team continually educating and perfecting our skills, investing in new services and products, which is an important part of our ethos for growth at Keith Graham Hairdressing. Promotions have been planned & we have recruited new team members Emily & Harvie who both joined us in mid February and are taking guests, Harvie qualified as a designer in 2022 and enjoys working with Long Hair & Balayage techniques. Emily trained at college and is currently doing N.V.Q. level 3 and working with us 3 days a week adding salon experience to her skill set.

As an Introductory offer throughout April we are able to offer 20% off a Cut & Style & Colour Services on Monday, Tuesday & Wednesday when you book with them.

Since January we have had a Cutting masterclass hosted by salon success & 2 other salons joined us for the day, the focus of this was to enhance cutting skills using razors & creating disconnection within a haircut.

We then spent 2 days with Zen hair extensions learning different application methods & can now offer Tape, Nano, Micro ring & Weft Extensions, all are a great way to add length, fullness & colour to your hair, Karen, Sarah, Georgia, Eloise & Harvie all gained certification see the results below. Book a consultation to discuss if extensions are suitable for you.

Throughout April to Launch hair extension services we are including Shampoo/Conditioner & an Extension brush in our package, worth £50 for you to take home.

In our colour workshop we worked on colour placement, face framing and adding pops of colour around the hairline & lastly a styling workshop with GHD on how to create beach waves using the new Chronos Styling Iron.

We need to expand our model guests on Wednesdays which is training day for Sofia our apprentice who is working towards N.V.Q. level 2 in hairdressing. All training is supervised if you have a little extra time & are working to a budget this could be perfect for your next Cut & Style, Colour, Blowdry, Hair Up or a Perm.
